My Husband Had Affairs, Lord, Arrest Him Elo Anaro-Wood

This was a compelling story to tell. It details issues around infidelity in any home. The pains, decisions that have to be made, fights and where strength may come from. Questions like should I retaliate or stick to my marital vows are things that come to mind. Family life inspired me to write this book. I needed to share my experience with all those who have had similar experiences and those who may experience it and how to cope with these hurdles through the love of God.

Most women would have forgotten their marital vows and call off the marriage as soon as they had any hint or doubt about their husband. However, this story took a different dimension that some women may find upsetting and unbelievable. It is my believe that this book will challenge you that difficult as it may seem, some marriages could be saved.
