Sarah Stickney Ellis (1799-1872) was the author of numerous books; mostly written about women's role in society. Particularly well-known are The Wives of England, The Women of England, The Mothers of England, and The Daughters of England, also her more directly educational works such as Rawdon House and Education of the Heart: Women's Best Work. Related to her principal literary theme of moral education for women, she established Rawdon House in Hertfordshire; a school for young ladies intended to apply the principles illustrated in her books to the "moral training, the formation of character, and in some degree the domestic duties of young ladies." Other works include: The Women of England: Their Social Duties and Domestic Habits (1839) and The Sons of the Soil (1840).
