Tunnel Tales: Lineage War James L Shipman, Brian Penn

Life of a tunnel guard provided security for the clan. As each generation ages and grows brittle, a tunnel guard would craft a son to replace him. He taught his boy everything he knew. Within the deepest tunnels father and son stood together flanking the corridor learning how to watch and listen. Hours were spent waiting. Invaders could steal upon them at any moment. Muscles must be kept taunt and ready to launch into action. Ears sharp for a revealing distant cave kiss: drip, drip, drip, splat or maybe ting. Light traveled forever underground. Eyes keen for a warning glimmer or gleam. A father took the safer times to tell the old stories.
