Unedited, completely fresh and perfectly fked story by the artistic provocateur Nigel Tomm begins without a cheesy intro: "I was tired, tired and lonely as a fking cocksucker or some kind of a drunken fkface. It was morning and I was laying in my fking bed with a fking pain in my fking head. Fk that. Fk the pain. Fk the world of fks! Just fk it and fk away." A true masterwork of contemporary literature, the book has transcended language and culture to become one of the most astonishing books ever written. It is a quintessential passage to the today's literature. You don't have to read the entire book - experience it, feel it, and taste it like wine, breathing it in and letting it sit and roll around your eyes. The book is written in the style of Nigel Tomm's novel "The Blah Story" and, actually, it's a sexy bit goodie.
