Commentary on the Gospel of Matthew (Commentary on the Book of Matthew) (Volume 1) Tim Hegg
Volume I covers the chapters 1 to 7 of the Gospel of Matthew. Tim Hegg journeys through the entire Gospel of Matthew and seeks to understand this gospel from a Messianic perspective. Hegg's approach follows an historical grammatical interpretation method and affirms that the 66 books of the Bible are the final authoritative rule for those who have faith in the Messiah Yeshua (Jesus). This work seeks to investigate the significance of the history and theology of first century Jewish sects to better understand the original audience of Matthew. This five volume set takes an exegetical look at the book of Matthew with an investigative scholarly tone as well as offering practical applications for one's life of faith.
