Medieval Music (The Norton Introduction to Music History) by Hoppin, Richard H. Published by W. W. Norton & Company 1st (first) edition (1978) Hardcover Richard H. Hoppin

The book will prove interesting and helpful to the increasing number of amateurs who, through both live and recorded performances, have come to know and love the strangely beguiling qualities of medieval music. Perhaps, in addition, it may contribute to a wider realization that the Middle Ages produced music worthy of the same careful study and admiration long accorded to its masterpieces of literature, art, and architecture.
