Wings of Our Own is a collection of stories about those "who also serve." This 240-page book is chock full of personal narratives and anecdotes and provides a linkage to the past as well as a taste of the present. These true tales of military life are emotionally charged, educational, inspirational and often humorous. All are heartwarming and demonstrate the bonds and similarities that connect them. Although these Air Force spouses share a special bond, every spouse and parent can relate to their stories.
