Brave in Heart Emma Barry

Theodore Ward is a man of deep passions and strong principles - none of which he acts on. So Margaret Hampton ends their engagement, breaking both of their hearts in the process.

Years after their estrangement, ardent but frozen Theo attempts to reconnect with Margaret. She is no longer trusting of the idea of romantic love, having become pragmatic and wary during decades alone. But with the drumbeat of the early days of the Civil War in the background, how can she refuse?

The courtship that results is hasty, reckless, and intense, fueled by contradictions between Theo's willingness finally to change and Margaret's fears about the future. Two smart, stubborn, fiery people will need to overcome the hesitations of their hearts and the perils of battle if they're ever to find happiness.
