She Writes on the Walls: A Song of Survival Pietro Amasoleil

Written in a combination of poetry and prose, this book has been called an impenetrable kaleidoscope of sex, god, and family. Some think it is also a murder mystery where the names have been concealed to protect the innocent (and the guilty). Others see universal threads connecting it to Dante's La Vita Nuova or Jung's Liber Novum. More likely, however, it is just a bizarre mashed-up multilingual modern manifestation of the Quijotification of Sancho Panza...or perhaps I've got that backwards.... Todo eso podrá ser, pero también es una verdadera carta de amor infinito. And it is a little song of survival from someone with no musical talent to a reluctant muse, recounting the Petrification of God's friend.
