The heat is on, the truth is close. How long can Eden keep her secret life hidden? Each lie becomes harder and harder to hide. Things take a turn that keep her on the edge, and put her relationship under strain. Can Brandon be that man? The man who can look beyond what are the social norms. How can anyone accept the life she lives? But as time goes by, the light has to shine and the truth must come out. But what truth? And does the truth truly set them free?
