Chained Melodies Debrah Martin

An extraordinary story of courage, self-belief and the true nature of love, when courage isn't about facing death, it's about facing life - and life isn't always conventional... "Chaos is about rejecting all that you have learnt, chaos is about being yourself." Emile M. Cioran If chaos theory applied to anyone, it's Will and Tom. Best friends since childhood, life takes very different courses for them until they're thrown back together in the middle of their own individual chaos. Surviving the terrors of war in Northern Ireland and the heartbreak of childlessness and a broken marriage, Tom learns that bravery isn't about daring death, it's about facing life. For Will, it's about being yourself – or in his case, herself, as he starts an unusual journey towards being just that; the woman, Billie. Chained Melodies is the extraordinary story of how two men find not just courage, but self-belief and the true nature of love. "Touching and almost heart-breaking, this is a novel to tickle your heart strings." "...breath-taking and intriguing..." "...a "must read" novel." "...quite beautiful, with a certain poetry in the tone."
