Totally Awesome News Becomes a Nightmare

For three years after high school, Kerri McLean slaved at the local fast food joint, grabbing every shift she could. She needs to bank every penny for Nursing School. She'll get to move on with her life and out on her own, away from overbearing parents, her snot nosed, Brainiac brother Neal and Betty Perfect, the pain in the neck kid sister.

The afternoon mail brings her the totally awesome news that she's been accepted into the Nursing Program! Yay!

Except not so much yay from Mom. And even more digs from dear old Dad. A reality check from them deteriorates into a screaming match. Kerri storms out the door and into the arms of her less than perfect boyfriend.

Way less than perfect. So much so, she winds up in jail, her future ruined!

When a deal is offered to erase her record and get her back on track, she grabs it. She'll do Community Service as a counselor at Acerton Christian Camp, shepherding young girls from disadvantaged families.

Wait a second... Even though she's a Christian her church attendance is spotty. Wait another darn minute! Kids get on her last nerve! Ask her brother and sister! And... are you kidding? She has to wake up at 5:30 AM? Seriously? This is SO totally unfair!

She really has no choice. She'll suck it up for the summer and get her life back. She'll have to put up with it, that's all.

The question is, can Rob, the handsome Camp Director, and Lisa, her co-leader put up with this Princess? Kerri's not all that easy to like. And they're not the only ones who feel that way. She makes a serious enemy. Kerri's sentence of community service just might get her killed.

Seriously!

As one reader has said:

"Camp Second Chance is a marvelous Christian Romance that takes place in the contemporary world. Barbara Howard has written a wonderful tale of sweet Christian fiction in which a young woman, a new adult who has spotty church attendance experiences a spiritual awakening. This is a refreshing story crackling with the tension of attraction between Kerri and Rob, but the author has kept this a clean romance.

Graceful scenes of mountain lakes and fireflies at dusk, are counterpointed by tragedy and tears. The gentle power of the Lord to create change and harbor growth in spite of setbacks makes this a must read Christian Inspirational Romance.”
