Love Dangerously Suzanne D Williams

His breath rushed out. Spinning her around, he cradled her chin in his hand. "Best thing I ever did was order the wrong sausage."

She smiled. "Best thing you ever did was argue with me about it."

Abe Beckett's family pedigree pushed him toward joining the police force years ago, then, ultimately, pushed him away. He didn't want to be like "dear old dad".

Yet, confronted by an armed robber at the Austrian food truck in the city park, his instincts kick back in. His new profession as a male midwife doesn't seem to stop his cop brain from working.

The presence of the curvaceous blonde, Vienna Stumpf, who runs the truck, does. But what begins as an argument soon holds possibilities of way more, until her family's missing jewelry and the suspicious behavior of a man he's trusted threaten to tear it all apart.

A comfortable mystery with a hint of romance by best-selling author, SUZANNE D. WILLIAMS.
