Sean Ellerbie thought that he had the world on a string. He had his church life on Sundays and a career he enjoyed the rest of the week. Through it all, he had a wife that he adored and a son who made him proud. He had great friends and enjoyed the status quo. Yes, Sean had it all figured out...until tragedy struck and turned his life upside down forcing him to learn about life and faith and hope. Follow his journey as Sean finds forgiveness that is unquantifiable and that, in turn, challenges him to forgive others who are seemingly unforgivable.
