ROCK STARS OF WINE AMERICA #2: AZ w/ MJK: I Could Drink a Case of You Stuart Pigott

The story of my discovery of singer-winemaker Maynard James Keenan (Puscifer and Tool / Caduceus Cellars and Merkin Vineyards) and other leading winemakers in Arizona like Todd & Kelly Bostock, Kent & Lisa Callaghan is seriously racy, but also tortuously twisting. Please note that the PARENTAL ADVISORY Explicit Content warning on the cover is not a pose. This outrageous work of Gonzo journalism is not suitable for minors due to the graphic and poetic description of sexual acts and certain illegal activities. You have been warned! Without giving the game away, this e-pamphlet tells the rock 'n' roll story of the year ending November 17th 2015 with the Puscifer gig of the group's Money Shot tour. During that time I travelled through the wine regions of AZ twice, and also met with MJK in New York City. Although this work is packed with facts about the AZ wine industry and my professional assessment of many AZ wines, this is a very personal story that pulls no punches. If you want a regular wine book please go somewhere else! However, if you are up for an off-road rock music and wine adventure, then take Hunter S. Thompson's advice, "buy the ticket, take the trip." Enough said, except to point out that #3 in this series of dangerous tales about the underground rock stars of wine America will cover the Finger Lakes in Upstate New York and publication on Kindle is planned for Spring, 2016.
