This is a study and revision aid for the Certificate of Professional Competence. Designed to give realistic practice on the multi-choice questions typical of the national examination, the book covers module A (for goods and PSV), the road goods module B and the international goods examination module D. There are also 100 extra questions for the separate Northern Ireland road goods modules A and B examinations. A correct answer for every question is shown at the end of the book. It also gives information on legal requirements for professional competence, on obtaining the qualification and on the RSA examination.
