The Unsung Heroes of Easter Daniel Whyte III

Because of the fast-moving, epic events of Holy Week, we often miss the seemingly insignificant characters of the Easter story. Only a verse or two is dedicated to their actions in the Biblical record, and we do not know that much more about them from extra-biblical records. But, as in all vast, sweeping historical events, little-known individuals carry out deeds of kindness, love, and bravery. They may only get a footnote in history, but their actions echo down to us today.

This book tells the stories of eight people whose lives were touched by Christ's journey to the cross. You will be blessed, encouraged, and inspired by the lives of mortal men and women caught up in the tumult of the most tragic and triumphant week in history.

Read the fascinating Easter story in the following chapters:

- Pilate's Wife and the Nightmare from Heaven
- Simon of Cyrene: An Encounter with God on the Road to Golgotha
- Mary: Peace in the Midst of the Storm
- John: The Disciple Who Loved Jesus to the Very End
- The Roman Centurion: A Change of Heart
- Joseph of Arimathea: A 'Secret Believer' Who Sacrificed for Jesus
- Nicodemus: Another Secret Saint Who Came Through for Jesus in the End
- Mary Magdalene: The First Person to See the Risen Christ
- Jesus Christ: The Ultimate Hero of Easter
- You, Me, and the Unsung Heroes
