"The Law and the Politics of the State": Politics, Law and Policies of the State John Edwin Jr

Laws, politics and the understanding of policies are central institutions of every state and chunk of governments energies are channelled into these areas daily. nevertheless, these aspects especially matters of legalities and issues of policies have not attracted much attention from political scientists and academicians especially in Africa, despite the enormous importances to governments and the citizenries. This book examines and explores the issues and looks at how the state initiates, formulate and enact policies to affect the public behaviors and attitudes. It is organized around three thematic areas: law, human rights and public policy. It should be of utmost importance and interest to students of political science, teachers and public administrators.
