The Rolling Stones (Beyond Good and Evil) (Volume 4) Michael Hannan

Synopsis As Iraq is being invaded, Baghdadis brake into the National Museum and cart off whatever they can carry. In all, they loot more than 15,000 pieces of art and antiquity. Finding 103 Sumerian cylinder seals, the museum's most valuable collection is the team's next project. This time they really have their work cut out for them because three Special Forces units are also trying to find the seals. The villains want to sell them for $25 million; the Iranians want to score a political coup; and the Coalition Task Force wants to return them. The Iranians have already tried to kidnap Kelly, and the villains would like to see her dead as well. Add to the mix, the CIA (ours and Canada's), the Montreal Police, the Mounties, and a devious, smooth-talking PI, and you'll understand why Kelly calls this one a grand cockup.
