Armchair Fiction presents extra large paperback editions of classic science fiction double novels. The first novel, "Somewhere I'll Find You," is a parallel worlds tale by sci-fi great, Milton Lesser. She was kidnapped into a parallel world. Snatching Ed's girl was certainly bad enough, but when the "little men" told him flat out that she had no right to be born, it really made him blow his top! Somewhere in the myriad parallel worlds was this lovely girl from Earth...but where? So it was up to Ed to find her, to rescue her—even though the science and knowledge of a Universe opposed him every step of the way! The second novel, "The Time Armada" is a tale of time and space by Fox B. Holden. When parallel worlds collide things can get dangerous. Politics and science don't mix—except that Congressman Blair had the habit of dabbling in physics. That was how it all started, the beginning of an incredible journey through time and space—but it ended on a parallel world in another dimension... Trapped in this parallel time world, Douglas Blair came to play a key roll in a society that killed children to discourage wars—not knowing that his own two sons were scheduled to die!
