The $100 Hamburger : A Guide to Pilots' Favorite Fly-In Restaurants, Second Edition John F. Purner
The burger is back and juicier than ever! The second edition of the book pilots love - and eat by - features over 1,000 pilot recommended places to land for that meal at the end of the flight. The author rates restaurants in all 50 states and even includes 16 foreign locations, including Canada, Mexico, the Bahamas, Australia, France, England, Italy, and Germany. It is just what every pilot needs to plan a fun outing in the plane and get some good food too. This second edition contains 80 per cent new or revised information. All reviews are from fellow pilots who've actually been there, chowed down, and awarded each place from one to five "burgers". It tells everything: location, service, price, transportation, dress codes, and hours of operation.
