The Dragon's Secret Augusta Huiell Seaman

The Dragon's Secret, by Augusta Huiell Seaman, is a classic tale of adventure and mystery. Her stories often entail mysteries surrounding desolate and abandoned locations, including houses, mines, lighthouses, and hotels. Seaman was lauded for creating adventurous historical novels that made the past come alive for both the novel's heroines and readers. In The Dragon's Secret, young Leslie Crane is sent to New Jersey to care for her sickly Aunt Marcia, whose doctor sent her to the seaside to get well. It is October, and the beach seems desolate. Leslie finds herself longing for some excitement. The grandeur of the ocean conjures up ideas of adventure and romance. Soon, she meets a kindred spirit in a young girl named Phyllis, who is taking a fishing vacation with her father and brother, Ted. As the two of them are getting to know one another, Phyllis's dog finds something mysterious buried close to the abandoned bungalow next door to Leslie's. Soon, the girls are sucked into the mystery surrounding the bungalow and its mysterious visitors.
