True Colours (The You Don't Know Me Trilogy Book 2) Mandy Lee

Reeling from the shock of discovering Dan's true identity, Maya struggles to make the right decision. But she's incapable of resisting the man she loves, and soon finds herself drawn back into his world - a world of intensely sexual passion.

While his love and support help her to confront her fears and blossom as an artist, what she needs more than anything is the ability to trust. Determined to discover the truth and build a future with Dan, she makes it her mission to find out what transformed him into the man he is now.

However, the shadows of the past won't leave them alone. And when those shadows converge, the consequences are far more dangerous than anyone could have predicted.

True Colours, a steamy erotic romance, is the second instalment in the You Don't Know Me Trilogy.
