In Fruits of the Poisonous Tree Part II, Lucky climbs his way to the top of the lucrative drug trade as a Black Disciple gang leader. He now controls the entire Ida B. Wells housing projects and has beautiful women falling at his feet. The world is his, or so it seems. Meanwhile, DEA Agent Jackson is relentless in his pursuit to put the entire gang in prison for life. Notorious for his charm, Lucky tries to seduce Agent Jackson's wife in an attempt to keep tabs on the agent's every move against him and his gang. But the cat-and-mouse game soon spirals out of control. Meanwhile, Crusher, on a quest to try to change what he helped to destroy, is doing his best to keep his promise he made to the Lord: to rebuild communities across Chicago. Once Crusher discovers it was Lucky who killed his little brother Tommy, the war within him begins. Half of him wants to forgive his lifelong friend; the other half wants him dead. With King Neal—the king of the BDs—as the instigator, events unfold quickly in a bloody fight for survival.
