17 year old Maxine Von Royce has always dreamed of being a rock star someday. She and her band has been performing under their stage name as Layla and the Crimson Chains for four years, also winning every talent show, and then moving onto a local bar called the Purple Gem. Even though they know that they have what it takes to be rock stars, every record producer they audition in front of thinks otherwise. Until one day, Glen Fuller, the son of an underground record label and producer, becomes the new student and answers Maxine's prayers. Can she handle the pressure of being a rock star? Will she maintain living in the fast life or will she fail at being what she desires most? Only one way to find out.
