The Wrap-around Porch (The Parable of Taylor Shepherd) David K. Champion

There are few things like the battle of wills between a father and his child. For Taylor, the son of Christopher Shepherd, that feeling ruled his existence. But when a tragic accident finds his father battling for his life, Taylor must return to home to Calvary and face the bane of his childhood existence, the family porch.

From the stories of the people that live in Calvary and by facing the truth about his relationship with his father, Taylor must find the courage to humble himself and fulfill his father's will for his life. Bathed in symbolism, "The Wrap-around Porch" is a story that anyone that has loved a wayward child can get lost in. Prepare to read the salvation story as it has never been told.
