Heidi Grows Up Kev Pickering

For Heidi Strong and her mother Amy, life can never be the same. Amy has entered into a relationship with the mother of Heidi's best friend Cindy, and they are moving into the same house to live together.

But as they begin their new life, new challenges also come. They meet a couple with secrets, face the most horrific night of their lives, and discover new friends as they begin to experience the greatest journey a girl can face.

The later teenage years...

This third collection of the Heidi stories see Heidi and her friends facing new challenges, and reliving old memories, as one by one they discover what they really want from life - and become the stronger for it.

Some of the things they face are more adult than others, but throughout one thing remains constant - friendship and family.
