'80s sitcom star Renee Dorsey is making a comeback and she's in Jubilee's version of My Fair Lady. But the diva is making life hard for everybody in the cast, especially for her Eliza, who has her own homophobic agenda. With the play veering from "on" to "off", it doesn't help when people start dropping dead and "Get Me to the Morgue" sounds like it might replace "Get Me to the Church". Jubilee, Vera and Julia need to figure out what is going on and how far back the roots of this vindictiveness goes before it's curtains for the play. Just who is Donna Valencia and does she hate Renee enough to destroy her comeback? Or can our intrepid detective three-some put all the clues together and save My Fair Lady?
