From the 'hippies' of the 60s and 70s, through to environmental activists leading up to modern times, the problems facing future generations who will inherit the planet we leave behind seem to have been well documented.

This book is the next step as we continue to grow knowledge and understanding of the impacts, such as climate change, global warming, deforestation, warming oceans etc, each of us is having on our fragile planet.

Taking in all of the modern knowledge and scientific data, including recent statements made by Pope Francis; TTS Publishing leads the readers on a journey of the next steps required to 'save ourselves' from ourselves.

This book highlights the key areas of concern faced by our planet and what you can do in a practical sense. It gives you advice on the actions you can take to make a difference.

Whether you are after a guide for teaching children or you would just like to take the next steps in this evolution of self sustainability, this is a perfect guide for all of us that call Earth our home.
